Editorial Correspondence.
Washington, Tuesday, May 5. The great struggle on the important question of of the House by single Districts of configurations of the House by single Districts of the Union is just coming to issue. Mr. Athertex of N. H. has just concluded a vehement harangue against the District conclu is the true State Rights doctrine-and that to cos the Senate.

2 o'clock strikes and the Chairman's hummer sops the argument of the Carolinian. The Committee of the Whole proceeds to vote, first, on Mr. provision. Rejected. Next, a Loco-Foco moved that no State be required to divide a County, but may add another to it if necessary to constitute an Rejected. Next, on the great District amend-ment. Carried, in Committee. Ayes, Ninetyfire; Noes, Ninety-two. The question now came up on Mr. Everett's amendment, proposing that the Ratio be 62,000, and that major fractions be represented. Without taking the question on this, (it being ruled out of order at this time) the Committee rose and reported the bill to the House, (the

Mr. Everett of Vt. moved to change the Ratio to 70,630. The Chair decided that this was out of order. An appeal was taken, and overrolled, as having been just in substance laid on the table.

Mr. Thompson of In argued against this decision, and Mr. Wisk moved the Previous Question on the Appeal, and naked the Yeas and Nays. Ordered. The decision of the Chair was negatived: Yeas 86; Nays 190. So the decision of said the had learned that the Postmaster was not float of the Ratio of the Chair was negatived: Yeas 86; Nays 190.
